TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Sri Narayan Chandra Biswas, S/o- Harendra Chandra Biswas, Secretary of North Bengal Social Welfare Organisation, Falakata, Alipurduar is a popular Humanitarian and eminent Social Worker. As a Humanitarian Philanthropist, he has been providing social services in the undeveloped areas of the villages for a long time by spending his earnings and he is popularly known in the masses as the "Bina paisar doctor" i.e. Homeopathy consultant without money. Common people including poor people are benefitted by getting the services of the said social service during Covid-19 pandemic. The philanthropist played an important role by providing free medical services, food items and social services to the poor people. The Subhas Pally Unit of Falakata was declared as the "Covid Warrior" during the Covid-19 and felicitated by the then Governor of West Bengal. He is known as the "god of the poor" and published in various newspapers as the "Pride of North Bengal". He is a 'shining star' in building a "Disease free Society" and building a New India. He is eligible for Government awards as a social worker. I, therefore, strongly recommend to give him the "Padmasree" award.

I wish him every success in life.
